PREAMBLE

To provide a convenient and accessible vaccination venue for the local community, to raise awareness about the importance of COVID-19 vaccination and to contribute to the national vaccination drive and help achieve community immunity

REPORT

The MITK NSS (National Service Scheme) Unit took a proactive stance in contributing to the community's well-being by organizing a Corona Vaccination Drive on June 30, 2021. The drive aimed to facilitate the vaccination process, enhance community awareness, and support the national effort to combat the COVID-19 pandemic. The event was organized in collaboration with local health authorities from Basrur, who provided the necessary support and resources. The event featured well-organized vaccination booths, with trained medical staff administering vaccines. Strict adherence to safety protocols, including social distancing and sanitation measures, was maintained throughout the event. Maximum number of students and Faculties got benefit from this drive.

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Staff co-coordinator

Mr. Balanageshwar S- NSS officer

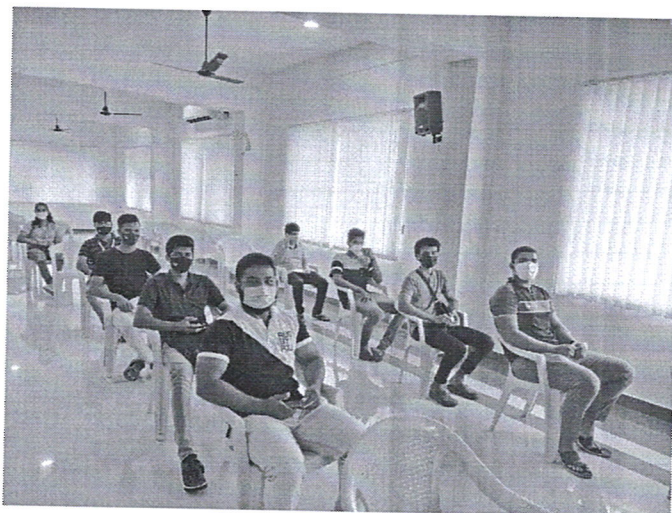

Mr. Varuna Kumara- Department of ECE

Mr. Venkatesh – Department of MBA

Feedback:

- The event successfully vaccinated a significant number of individuals from the local community, contributing to the overall vaccination coverage in the region.
- The drive helped dispel myths and misconceptions about the COVID-19 vaccine, fostering a more informed and supportive community.
- The collaborative effort between the NSS Unit and health authorities showcased the effectiveness of community engagement in public health initiatives.
