PREAMBLE

On March 15, 2023, the MITK campus came alive with vibrant colors and creativity as 8 students participated in the Rangoli event. This traditional Indian art form, known for its intricate patterns and use of colored powders, brought together students from various backgrounds to showcase their artistic talents.

Participants: A total of 8 students participated in the Rangoli event, displaying a diverse range of artistic skills. They hailed from different academic disciplines, adding a unique blend of creativity to the competition.

Theme: The event had an open theme, allowing participants to express their creativity freely. This resulted in a wide variety of designs, from traditional motifs to modern interpretations.

Execution: The participants arrived at the venue with enthusiasm and began creating their Rangolis from the early hours of the morning. The event space was adorned with colorful powders, flowers, and other decorative elements. Students utilized a variety of techniques, including freehand drawing, stencils, and intricate patterns.

Judging: A panel of experienced judges assessed the Rangolis on various criteria, including creativity, symmetry, use of colors, and overall visual impact. The judging process was fair and impartial, with scores awarded based on the merits of each design.

Winners: After careful deliberation, the following students emerged as the winners:

Second Place: Thanushree - 3rd ECE

Prizes: The winners received certificates of excellence and exciting prizes as tokens of recognition for their artistic achievements.

Conclusion: The Rangoli event on March 15, 2023, at MITK campus was a resounding success, showcasing the incredible talent and creativity of the participating students. It not only celebrated the rich tradition of Rangoli but also fostered a sense of unity and creativity within the campus community.

This event served as a reminder of the importance of art and culture in academic life, and it is expected to become an annual tradition at MITK, fostering artistic expression and promoting cultural diversity.
